

The Roger B. Henkle Memorial Lecture

THE MIRROR & THE MAZE

Samuel Delany

Granoff Center for the Creative Arts
Martinos Auditorium
Room 110
154 Angell Street

Tuesday, November 7, 2017
5:30 PM
Reception to follow

Samuel Delany is a highly lauded writer of science fiction and cultural criticism, in which he explores questions of sexuality, gender, race, language, perception, and the fluctuating conceptions of "the human." His prodigious literary talents are intimately informed by his experiences as a gay black man, the grandson of a freed slave, and nephew of famous civil rights workers. He is also an acute observer of off-the-grid urban spaces, the textures of micro-neighborhoods, and queer locations.

BROWN

Sponsored by the Department of Modern Culture and Media, Department of English, Brown Arts Initiative Fitt Artist-in-Residence Grants Program, Malcolm S. Forbes Center for Culture and Media Studies, Marshall Woods Lectureship Foundation of Fine Arts

|| | | | | BROWN
|| | | | | ARTS
|| | | | | INITIATIVE