VITAL PLATFORMS, PURLOINED TRANSMISSIONS

A LECTURE BY NEFERTI TADIAR

PROFESSOR AND CHAIR

DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S, GENDER, & SEXUALITY STUDIES

BARNARD COLLEGE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Neferti X. M. Tadiar is Professor and Chair of Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies at Barnard College. She is the author of Things Fall Away: Philippine Historical Experience and the Makings of Globalization (2009) and Fantasy-Production: Sexual Economies and Other Philippine Consequences for the New World Order (2004). Her work has focused on contemporary Philippine cultural production in the context of national and global political and economic transformations, addressing questions of gender, race and sexuality in practices of nationalism, globalization and radical social movements. Her current book project, entitled Remaindered Life: Becoming Human in a Time of War, is a meditation on the disposability and surplus potential of life-making under present conditions of global empire. She is co-editor of the journal Social Text.
