"Double Fictions, Double Visions: Cross-cultural work and the Japanese Doppelganger"

Baryon Tensor Posadas received his Ph.D. in East Asian Studies at the University of Toronto in 2010. His dissertation “Double Fictions and Double Visions of Japanese Modernity” examines the appearances of the figure of the doppelganger in a range of Japanese films and fictions not only as a recurrent motif, but also as a critical practice of concepts at two historically specific moments, namely the 1920s and 1930s and the contemporary conjuncture. Posadas is currently a Postdoctoral Fellow in the Department of East Asian Studies at McGill University.
