Toward a 4th Generation of Disparities Research to Achieve Health Equity

The Department of Behavioral and Social Sciences’ i-BSHS (Innovations in Behavioral and Social Health Sciences) lecture series fosters collaborative discussion on innovative behavioral and social science-based approaches to improving population health.

Dr. Stephen B. Thomas is Professor of Health Services Administration and the founding Director of the Center for Health Equity in the School of Public Health, University of Maryland, College Park. An internationally recognized leader in minority health research and community engagement, Dr. Thomas has been a lead investigator of multiple studies investigating racial differences in health outcomes.

Continue the conversation with our speaker over a light lunch immediately following the talk in room 247.

Stephen B. Thomas, PhD
Maryland Center for Health Equity
University of Maryland, School of Public Health