BEASTS, MONSTERS, and the FANTASTIC in the RELIGIOUS IMAGINATION

An interdisciplinary graduate student conference with a keynote address delivered by

John Lardas Modern, Franklin & Marshall College

Live at Napa State Mental Hospital
Keynote Address
Friday, February 28, 6:30 pm-7:30 pm
Salomon 001

Presentations
Saturday, March 1, 9:00 am-6:00 pm
Salomon 001

Sponsored by the American Academy of Religion, New England/Maritimes Region (NEMAAR); the Program in Judaic Studies; the Graduate Student Council; the Department of Religious Studies; the Department of Egyptology and Ancient Western Asian Studies; the Program in Early Cultures; the Department of English; the Department of History; the Department of Modern Culture and Media; the Joukowsky Institute for Archaeology and the Ancient World; the Department of American Studies; the Department of Philosophy; and the Department of Comparative Literature.