2021 K. Brooke Anderson Lecture

Join us for a conversation with Eric Ward, Western States Center, on the urgency of this moment and our role in rescuing our democracy and one another

Why We Need Each Other
Tackling the Triple Threat of Racism, Misogyny, and Antisemitism

Followed by discussion moderated by
Matthew Shenoda, Associate Provost for Social Equity & Inclusion, and SEI Advisor to the President, Rhode Island School of Design

Eric K. Ward is a nationally-recognized expert on the relationship between authoritarian movements, hate violence, and preserving inclusive democracy. In his 30+ year civil rights career, he has worked with community groups, government and business leaders, human rights advocates, and philanthropy as an organizer, director, program officer, consultant, and board member. The recipient of the Peabody-Facebook Futures Media Award, Eric’s widely quoted writings and speeches are credited with key narrative shifts. He currently serves as Executive Director of Western States Center, Senior Fellow with Southern Poverty Law Center and Race Forward, and Co-Chair for The Proteus Fund.
