Brown Contemplative Studies, Religious Studies and East Asian Studies Present a Public Lecture by Professor Roger Ames

CONFUCIAN ROLE ETHICS AND
THE “CASTING” OF PERSONS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH 2015, 4 – 5:30 PM

At the Brown Faculty Club, 1 Magee St., Providence, R.I.
Reception to Follow

Roger Ames is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Hawaii and editor of Philosophy East & West and China Review International. He has authored several interpretative studies of Chinese philosophy and culture, most recently, Confucian Role Ethics: A Vocabulary. His publications include translations of Chinese classics: Sun-tzu: The Art of Warfare; Sun Pin: The Art of Warfare and Tracing Dao to its Source and the Confucian Analects and the Classic of Family Reverence: A Philosophical Translation of the Xiaojing, Focusing the Familiar: A Translation and Philosophical Interpretation of the Zhongyong, and A Philosophical Translation of the Daodejing: Making This Life Significant. Recently he has undertaken several projects that entail the intersection of contemporary issues and cultural understanding. His Democracy of the Dead: Dewey, Confucius, and the Hope for Democracy in China and Confucian Role Ethics: Doing Justice to Justice (forthcoming) are a product of this effort.

This lecture is made possible, in part, by a generous donation from the Hershey Family Foundation and other donors. For more information, please go to www.brown.edu/academics/contemplative-studies/