BYLAWS OF BROWN UNIVERSITY
PANHELLENIC ASSOCIATION

Article I. Name
The name of this organization shall be the Brown University Panhellenic Association.

Article II. Object
The object of the Panhellenic Association shall be to develop and maintain women’s sorority life and interfraternity relations at a high level of accomplishment and in so doing to:
1. Consider the goals and ideals of member organizations as applicable to campus and personal life.
2. Promote superior scholarship and intellectual development.
3. Cooperate with member women’s sororities and the university/college administration to maintain high social and moral standards.
4. Act in accordance with National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Unanimous Agreements, policies and best practices.
5. Act in accordance with such rules established by the Panhellenic Council as to not violate the sovereignty, rights and privileges of member sororities.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. Membership classes
There shall be three classes of membership: regular, provisional and associate.
A. Regular membership. The regular membership of the Brown University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all chapters of NPC sororities at Brown University. Regular members of the College Panhellenic Association shall pay dues as determined by the Panhellenic Council. Each regular member shall have voice and one vote on all matters. All organizations recognized as regular members of the Panhellenic Association must comply with the requirements of the Panhellenic Association, the current Brown University student handbook, Rhode Island state laws, and federal laws.

B. Provisional membership. The provisional membership of the Brown University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all colonies of NPC sororities at Brown University. Provisional members shall pay no dues and shall have voice but no vote on all matters. A provisional member shall automatically become a regular member upon being installed as a chapter of an NPC sorority.
C. Associate membership. Local sororities or inter/national or regional non-NPC member organizations may apply for associate membership of the Brown University Panhellenic Association. The membership eligibility requirements and the process for submitting an application and approval of the application shall be determined by the Panhellenic Council. Associate members shall pay dues as determined by the Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall have voice and one vote on all matters except extension-related matters. If they are not participating in the primary recruitment process, they shall not have a vote on recruitment rules and establishment or modification of Panhellenic total. An associate member may be expelled for cause by a majority vote of the Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall not be entitled to vote on the question of its expulsion.

Section 2. Privileges and responsibilities of membership
A. Duty of compliance. All members, without regard to membership class, shall comply with all NPC Unanimous Agreements and be subject to these Brown University Panhellenic Association bylaws, code of ethics and any additional rules this Panhellenic Association may adopt, unless otherwise prescribed in these bylaws. Any rules adopted by this Panhellenic Association in conflict with the NPC Unanimous Agreements shall be void.
