2018-2019 Greek & Program House Awards

Application Instructions:
- Fill out the Greek & Program House Award Application
- Email gphe@brown.edu any supporting references/documentation
- Each Award Submission must be 1-2 pages, double-spaced, size 12 font, 1” margins
- Each Reference must be be 1-2 pages, double-spaced, size 12 font, 1” margins

Awards:
1.Greek President
2.Greek Organization
3.Greek Leader
4.Program House
5.Program House President
6.Program House Leader
7.Service Event
8.Diversity & Inclusion Event

Award Descriptions:

1. Greek President
   - Students must have served at least one entire semester within the 2018-2019 academic year to be eligible to be nominated for President of the Year.
   - Anyone may nominate a current or previous president for the award.
   - All nominations must include an essay written by the person submitting the nomination, as well as two letters of recommendation:
     - One recommendation letter from a member who served on the Executive Board with the president up for nomination
     - One recommendation letter from a general member or advisor

2. Greek Organization
   An organization may submit an application regarding their performance during the 2018-2019 academic year. Questions to consider when applying:
   - Is there dedication to continued education of membership?
   - In what ways does the organization promote a values-based community?
   - Did the organization demonstrate efforts toward risk management? Did the group provide safe living and learning environments for its members?
- How does the organization demonstrate emphasis on academic improvement and/or success?
- Does the organization demonstrate good financial management?
- Is there timely submission of reports, including new member forms, roster updates, officer updates, etc?

3. Greek Leader
Any Greek Leader active for the entire 2018-2019 academic year is eligible to be nominated.
- Nominees for this award do not have to have served on your organization’s executive board.
- They may show excellence in leadership in areas outside of your organization
- Anyone can nominate an outstanding leader for Leader of the Year.
- All nominations must include an essay written by the person submitting the nomination, as well as two letters of recommendation:
  - One recommendation letter from a member of the nominee’s organization
  - One recommendation letter from a member of an outside organization or advisor

4. Program House President/House
- Students must have served at least one entire semester within the 2018-2019 academic year to be eligible to be nominated for President of the Year.
- Anyone may nominate a current or previous president for the award.
- All nominations must include an essay written by the person submitting the nomination, as well as two letters of recommendation:
  - One recommendation letter from a member who served on the Executive Board with the president up for nomination
  - One recommendation letter from a general member or advisor

5. Program House
An organization may submit an application regarding their performance during the 2018-2019 academic year. Questions to consider when applying:
- Is there dedication to continued education of membership?
- In what ways does the organization promote a values-based community?
- Did the organization demonstrate efforts toward risk management? Did the group provide safe living and learning environments for its members?
- How does the organization demonstrate emphasis on academic improvement and/or success?
- Does the organization demonstrate good financial management?
- Is there timely submission of reports, including new member forms, roster updates, officer updates, etc?

6. Program House Leader
Any Program House Leader active for the entire 2018-2019 academic year is eligible to be nominated.
• Nominees for this award do not have to have served on your organization’s executive board.
• They may show excellence in leadership in areas outside of your organization
• Anyone can nominate an outstanding leader for Leader of the Year.
• All nominations must include an essay written by the person submitting the nomination, as well as two letters of recommendation:
  ○ One recommendation letter from a member of the nominee’s organization
  ○ One recommendation letter from a member of an outside organization or advisor

7. Service Event
Applications should be for a specific service event or year-long initiative/partnership with a philanthropy or service organization during fall 2018 to spring 2019.
• How much money was raised through your philanthropy events?
• How many hours of community service has your group contributed during the academic year?
• What efforts did you make to collaborate with other organizations for philanthropy?
• What new programs did your organization participate in?
• What are your organization’s national or local charities, and what ways did you serve those organizations?
• In what ways did you manage to get the campus and Greek/Program House community involved in your philanthropy?
• Did your organization pair up with other chapters for your philanthropic events?

8. Diversity & Inclusion Event
Applications should be for a specific diversity and inclusion event or year-long initiative during fall 2018 to spring 2019.
• Does it provide opportunities for awareness of diversity in the organization?
• In what ways does it create an environment where all people feel respected, appreciated, and included?
• How does it promote awareness and acceptance of differences concerning religion, ethnicity and culture, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, and disability?
• Have members been educated about multiculturalism, and are ready to make an effort towards promoting the principles of cultural pluralism and diversity?
• Explain a specific initiative your group engaged in regarding diversity and inclusion and the impact for your members and the organization.