Calling for EMS in the Brown Community

Reasons to call include:
- Loss of consciousness
- Confusion or altered mentation, combativeness, or unexpected weakness or sleepiness
- No breathing, very slow breathing, or difficulty breathing
- Significant bleeding or injury
- Chest pain or severe pain anywhere

1. CALL

   401-863-4111

   - The Communications Center will send you the necessary resources from Brown or elsewhere.
   - If you are outside the City of Providence, call 911.

2. CONVEY

   - What is the emergency?
   - Is the person awake and communicating normally?
   - Is this a specific illness or injury?
   - What is your exact location (building, room #?)
   - What is being done to help the person right now? Is there CPR in progress, or any first aid?
   - Can you provide additional helpful information:
     o Age of the person?
     o Is the person a Brown student?
   - What is your name and call back number?
   - Are there any safety concerns for you or others? Is the person combative or threatening?

3. COORDINATE

   - If possible, send someone to greet EMS and lead them to the ill/injured person.
   - Tell the dispatcher exactly where you will meet EMS.
