The Brown Faculty Club, Brown University
One Magee Street | Providence, RI | 401-863-3023

// Senior year is a time for transition, and for me, the Club Plan was a perfect part of crossing the symbolic threshold from student to alumna.

I would recommend this option as a great way for students to become acquainted with the Brown Faculty Club as prospective members, and to escape the bustle of college dining halls when the occasion calls for something more exclusive – treating visiting family to lunch or dinner, impressing special guests, or marking a big occasion with friends. Dining at the Faculty Club guarantees friendly service, delicious meals, and a refined but comfortable atmosphere. All of this makes the Club Plan an excellent ace up the sleeve for rising seniors. //

The Brown Faculty Club provides a year-round, private and attractive gathering place in the heart of the Brown University campus that is perfect for dining or for entertaining associates, friends, and family.

Your Club Plan comes with a special debit balance to use at the Faculty Club, separate from the other meals and points associated with your meal plan that can be used during the fall and spring semesters.

The Club Plan can be added to a meal plan at any time during the academic year in person at the Brown Dining office located at 144 Thayer Street. Additional funds can be added to the Club Plan debit balance in person at the Brown Dining office.
