CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

SHARE Advocate (Sexual Harassment & Assault Resources & Education)
20 Beacon Street, Brown & Charlesfield, 3rd floor
Alana Sacke, 401-863-3794, macka4@brown.edu
Alana is available to help students affected by sexual violence. Confidential services include support for a survivor or the friend(s) of a survivor; help filing a complaint (if that is the student’s choice); help navigating resources at Brown and in the community; and educational programs for the student community.

Office of the Chaplains and Religious Life
J Walter Wilson, Room 410, 56 Brown Street
By appointment, 401-863-2344
Jaset Cooper Nelson, Chaplain
Helps students who have suffered bullying, harassment, housing discrimination, or violence navigate University processes. This includes, but is not limited to, discrimination on the basis of gender, religion, disability, race, or sexual preference. Provides support, advice, advocacy, and referrals.

Brown Health Services
401-863-2053
Andrews House (at the corner of Brown and Charlesfield St.)
- Confidential medical care, testing, and treatment. Emergency contraceptive pills and treatment for sexually transmitted infections are available.
- 24-hour nursing advice for urgent issues.

Counseling and Psychological Services
J Walter Wilson, Room 326
401-863-3478
Crisis support, follow-up appointments, 24-hour on-call services.

OTHER RESOURCES

Office of Student Life: Student Support Services
Graduate Center E, 42 Charlesfield Street, 4th floor
By appointment, 401-863-2345
For emergencies see Dean of the Day/Administrator on Call. Above.
- Maria Suarez, Associate Dean and Director of Student Support Services
- Cynthia Ellis, Associate Dean
- Mary Grossweiler, Assistant Dean
- Ashley Ferranti, Assistant Dean
- Can facilitate a request to Student Conduct for a No-Contact Order (A no-contact order within the University system is distinct from a legal restraining order.) Can be put in place immediately, before, or without a hearing.
- Provides academic support and advocacy.
- Connects students with legal, counseling, and medical resources.
- Facilitates communication with Residential Life regarding housing changes needs.
- Provides assistance filing complaints with Student Conduct (a Student Conduct dean can also be contacted directly).

Office of Student Life: Student Conduct
Graduate Center E, 42 Charlesfield Street, 4th floor
By appointment, 401-863-2345
Yolanda Castillo-Appolinario, Associate Dean and Director of Student Conduct
-65-3114
- Gunther Wade, Assistant Dean
- Facilitates the filing of a Student Conduct Complaint, which requests that the University address behaviors of a student or student organization. See the Office of Student Life’s website for detailed information on possible offenses and the nature of the process.
- Can put in place a No-Contact order, in which both parties are required to avoid communication with each other. (A no-contact order within the University system is distinct from a legal restraining order.) Can be put in place immediately, before, or without a hearing.

Office of Residential Life
Graduate Center E, 42 Charlesfield Street, 4th floor
By appointment, 401-863-3500
Dead Center E, fourth floor
- Richard Bova, Senior Associate Dean
- Natalie Bask, Director for Residential Education
- Kate Tompkins, Associate Director for Campus Living and Programs
- In cases of housing or other Creek-related issues, can provide temporary sanctions, informal mediation, or directives. See the Office of Student Life: Student Conduct for formal requests for University intervention.
- Provides formal and informal mediation (the Brown University Mediation Project offers peer mediation).
- Can move a student into a safer living space, change room assignments, or provide short/long term emergency housing.

Brown Emergency Medical Services
401-863-4211
EMERGENCY LINE
- EMS provides pre-hospital care and transportation to local emergency rooms. Available 24 hours a day.
- Title IX Office
By appointment, 401-863-2216
J Walter Wilson, Room 319-323
Amanda Walsh, Title IX Program Officer
- If a student has been impacted by sexual or gender-based harassment, sexual violence, stalking, or interpersonal violence, the Title IX Office can provide information related to resources and reporting options. If an individual is interested in filing a complaint, the Title IX Office oversees the investigation and resolution process.
- Title IX office reports to Office of Institutional Diversity - University Hall Room 427
By Appointment, 401-863-2316
Lisa Castagna-Lue, Vice President for Academic Development, Diversity and Inclusion.

CAREER SERVICES

Other Career Related Services
- Office of Career Services: College of Arts & Sciences
George A. Noble, Director
401-863-2216
- Office of Career Services: School of Engineering
Samuel J. Dirgo, Director
401-863-2218
- Office of Career Services: Watson Institute for International and Public Affairs
Christopher J. Hromada, Director
401-863-3478
- Office of Career Services: School ofanda
time to move students to a safe living space
- Referrals to other administrators as needed.

Sexual Assault Crisis Counselor
Available 24 hours/day: 401-863-6000
- Available 24/7 through Brown Counseling and Psychological Services’ on-call system. Confidential crisis support and information is available for any Brown student suffering from a sexual assault; for friends seeking to support a victim of sexual assault.
- The on-call counselor is available to accompany a victim to the hospital.
- Provides support for students who have suffered a sexual assault, or who are supporting friends who have.

COORDINATORS AND ADVOCATES

Student and Employee Accessibility Services
20 Beacon Street
By appointment, 401-863-9588
Cathie Wood, Director
- Provides resources and education to support students with disabilities.

CASE OF EMERGENCY: 401-863-4111
DPS EMERGENCY LINE

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Emergency line: 401-863-4111
Non-emergency line: 401-863-3242
DPS is a full police department authorized to enforce the laws of Rhode Island, as well as University rules and regulations. Officers patrol the Brown campus 24/7. Students living off-campus should call 911 to report crime.

Crime Victim Assistance
Michelle Nuey, by appointment: 401-863-2542
(401-863-2542)
A trained law enforcement advocate (non-police position) is available to provide post-crisis support to persons who report they have been a victim of a crime and to individuals who have personal safety concerns. You can obtain these services without filing a police report. Services available include:
- Individual safety-planning.
- Review of BI victim rights, related laws, definitions of crimes, and related legislation.
- Provides accommodation to local courts.
- Provides resource information, as well as referrals to external agencies servicing victims of crime, and their families.
- Provides assistance obtaining a restraining order.

Special Victims Unit of DPS
Michelle Nuey, 401-863-2542
Provides information and support concerning legal reporting options, safety planning, and assistance with obtaining restraining orders. Students can seek support and information without filing an official police report.

DPS Detectives
401-863-9905 or 401-863-3242
DPS Detectives are available to assist a community member with filing a criminal complaint and will provide a full overview of the option prior to moving forward. Detectives also facilitate any necessary communications with other municipal agencies including the Providence Police Department.

The Brown Center for Students of Color (BSCC)
68 Brown Street
401-863-2320
Joshua Segal, Interim Director
Provides resources and opportunities to Brown students interested in diversifying the campus community, as well as students of color.

The LGBTQ Center
531 Stephen Robert ‘62 Campus Center
Provides resources and opportunities for Brown students interested in diversifying the campus community, as well as students of color.

The Sarah Doyle Women’s Center
26 Benes Cottage Drive
401-863-2899
Gail Cohee, Director and Associate Dean of the College
Provides resources and opportunities for Brown students interested in diversifying the campus community, as well as students of color.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Emergency line: 401-863-4111
Non-emergency line: 401-863-3242
DPS is a full police department authorized to enforce the laws of Rhode Island, as well as University rules and regulations. Officers patrol the Brown campus 24/7. Students living off-campus should call 911 to report crime.

Crime Victim Assistance
Michelle Nuey, by appointment: 401-863-2542
(401-863-2542)
A trained law enforcement advocate (non-police position) is available to provide post-crisis support to persons who report they have been a victim of a crime and to individuals who have personal safety concerns. You can obtain these services without filing a police report. Services available include:
- Individual safety-planning.
- Review of BI victim rights, related laws, definitions of crimes, and related legislation.
- Provides accommodation to local courts.
- Provides resource information, as well as referrals to external agencies servicing victims of crime, and their families.
- Provides assistance obtaining a restraining order.

Special Victims Unit of DPS
Michelle Nuey, 401-863-2542
Provides information and support concerning legal reporting options, safety planning, and assistance with obtaining restraining orders. Students can seek support and information without filing an official police report.

DPS Detectives
401-863-9905 or 401-863-3242
DPS Detectives are available to assist a community member with filing a criminal complaint and will provide a full overview of the option prior to moving forward. Detectives also facilitate any necessary communications with other municipal agencies including the Providence Police Department.