Title: Photographer

Department: Brown Center for Students of Color (BCSC)

Supervisor: Assistant Director for First-Year and Sophomore Programs

Grade: A ($9.20-$10.45)

Hours/Week: 1-5 hours (hours vary depending on level of Center activity)

Organization Summary: Visualize. Vocalize. Mobilize. The Brown Center for Students of Color (BCSC) serves as a gathering place for communities of color. Students are encouraged to build meaningful relationships across difference, develop racial and ethnic consciousness, and enact change at Brown and beyond. The BCSC advances the University’s mission of educating and preparing students to discharge the offices of life with usefulness and reputation by empowering students of color, cultivating leadership, facilitating critical reflection, fostering informed action, and promoting social justice.

Job Description: The BCSC Photographer is primarily responsible for capturing and developing visual records of the events related to the BCSC Community at Brown. The Photographer is expected to work closely with the BCSC Programmers to develop a prioritized shooting schedule that will offer a representative and insightful record of events. The BCSC Photographer is expected to act as an archivist of his/her materials. All work is under the supervision of the Coordinator for First-Year and Sophomore Programs.

Requirements:
- Dedication to promoting campus awareness about diversity issues
- Experience working with DSLR cameras specifically Canon and Nikon
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Strong time management skills
- Familiar with digital photography software (e.g., Flickr, Photoshop)
- Creativity
- Must be in good academic standing
- Preferred but not required: Have own equipment

How to Apply: To apply for the position or for more information, please visit the Brown Student Employment Website at studentemployment.brown.edu and complete the BCSC Staffer Application Form. Applications are due on March 10, 2017.

Contact Person: Anthony Mam, Assistant Director for First-Year and Sophomore Programs

Contact Information: Email: anthony_mam@brown.edu Phone: (401) 863-9247