

Symposium: Chinese Women's Documentaries in the Market Era

March 21, 2012, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute
111 Thayer Street, Providence

Moderator: Lingzhen Wang, Brown University

- 9:00 Introduction Lingzhen Wang (Brown University)
Welcome Remarks: Kay Warren (Brown University)
Chung-I Tan (Brown University)
Kerry Smith (Brown University)
- 9:30 “Flexible Capitalism through the Lenses of Chinese/Taiwanese Women Documentarists”

Discussant Tze-lan Sang
University of Oregon
Cynthia Brokaw
Brown University
- 10:15 “When Feminism Meets Documentaries: Case Studies in Contemporary China”

Discussant Lu Xinyu
Fudan University, Shanghai, China
Cui Shuqin
Bowdoin College
- 11:00 “Hong Kong Independent Documentaries: History, Her-stories and Gender Troubles”

Discussant S. Louisa Wei
City University of Hong Kong
Lynne Joyrich
Brown University
- 11:45 Discussion
- 12:30 Break
- 12:45 Lunch

1:45 “Money or Honey: A Documentary Dilemma”

Discussant Sylvia Lin
University of Notre Dame
Amy Dooling
Connecticut College

2:30 “Chinese Capital in (E)Motion: Reading Beijing Taxi”

Discussant Qin Shao
The College of New Jersey
Keith Brown
Brown University

3:15 “Chinese Women under the Queer Gaze: Shitou and Women 50 Minutes”

Discussant Hongwei Bao
Nottingham Trent University
Samuel Perry
Brown University

4:00 Discussion