

The Annual Elizabeth Munves Sherman '77, P'06, P'09 Lecture in Gender and Sexuality Studies

Kubrick's Men's Pictures

Richard Rambuss

Professor of English

Monday, April 7, 2014, 5:30 pm

Pembroke Hall 305

172 Meeting Street, Providence, RI

Filmmaker Stanley Kubrick's oeuvre amounts to a sustained meditation on men and the male condition, not only in the present, but also in history and in the future. The lecture will focus on the early Kubrick, including his work as a cub photographer for Look magazine from 1945 -1950, his short-form documentaries, and his early noir boxing feature film Killer's Kiss.

Free and open to the public. Wheelchair accessible.

www.pembrokecenter.org

PEMBROKE CENTER

BROWN