women's history series 2016

Imagine Resistance

movements for a better world

---

3/2

Reproductive Freedom Teach-in & Social Hour

6:30-8:30PM / RC COLLEGE STUDENT UNION

Jan Brown, Medical Students for Choice, Planned Parenthood, & the College: Bright Future, Bright Hope! Will discuss about the local and national threat to abortion rights and what YOU can do about it!

3/3

Organizing at the Intersections of Black Lives Matter & Gender Justice

10:30-12PM / PETERUTRI LOUNGE

Join us for a workshop by Joshua Allen, an organizer, activist, and freedom fighter. This is a participatory discussion about how to participate in a local food home economists, the full house liberation movement. Participants can expect to learn and have new tools and strategies to engage in the movement for Black lives more effectively.

3/4

Loretta Ross Public Lecture

2:30-4:00PM / SALOMON XI

Loretta Ross is the founder of the SisterSong Women of Color Reproductive Justice Collective. Invoicing in the term Reproductive Justice, Ross will focus on the intersectional framework to fight racism, sexism, class and to address the challenges of reproductive health, autonomy and to think critically on how to enfold the body in the multiple physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual needs of people.

3/5

Black Feminism, Popular Cultural & Respectability

3:30-5:30PM / SALOMON XII

Mysticism and mothering in black women’s social justice activism Brazil/USA

12:00-1:30PM / JOLIWOSKY FORUM

Divaah Harris’s presentation examines the intersection of modern, mothering, hospitality, and community organizing in the lives of women of African descent in Brazil and the United States. Sponsored by the Watson Institute.

3/6

Women of Color Reception

5:30-7:00PM / FACULTY CLUB

The event is co-sponsored by the Sarah Doyle Women’s Center and Brown Center for Students of Color and is open to students and faculty. Please RSVP to Anthony_mam@brown.edu

3/7

Women vs. Consent: Sexual Assault in Post-War American Youth Sexual Culture

2:30-4:00PM / SMITH-BUONANNO HALL 201

Professor Amanda Littauer, Northern Illinois University, will give a talk on women’s sexual autonomy and pleasure, as well as the persistence of sexual violence in post-war decades across the US.

3/8

Opal Tomieti Lecture and Q&A

2:40-4:00PM / MACMILLAN 117 (SIMULCAST MACMILLAN 115)

Opal Tomieti, the daughter of the activist feminist movement, the Brazilian political project and network that launched the wake of the murder of Tereza Cristina Ribeiro, its director, in the context of a student movement, whichcombines implicit base and anti-black, anti-gender, and anti-social, to protect and affirm the beauty and dignity of all lives.

FORCA DA UMBRA: A CELEBRATION OF CARPE VENTURAE CULTURE THROUGH THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF WOMEN

6:00-8:00PM / SALLES HALL

Come celebrate and learn more about Cape Verdean culture and some of the key contributions made by women. Come celebrate and learn more about Cape Verdean culture and some of the key contributions made by women. Come celebrate and learn more about Cape Verdean culture and some of the key contributions made by women.

---

Special thanks to our sponsors:
- American Studies Department
- Africana Studies Department
- Asian American Heritage Series
- Black Heritage Series
- Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in America, Dean of the College, Health and Human Biology DUG
- Latino Heritage Series, Obstetrics and Gynecology Department
- Black Heritage Series.

FORÇA DI KRIOLA: A CELEBRA TION OF
CAPE VERDEAN CUL TURE THROUGH THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF WOMEN

---

Questions? Final slate@Brown.edu. To facilitate accessibility, accommodation information should be requested as far in advance of the event as possible. Please check our website for updated information.

---

womens history series 2016

The Lunchtime Talk Series will showcase the research of various Brown community members on anything feminist in thought or action. Please RSVP to Anthony_mam@brown.edu.