To become a NNNS trainer, you must first be certified in administering the NNNS exam. After you have been certified, and had substantial experience with the exam, you will have to:

- Send a video of you administering a NNNS exam
- Participate in a training to observe how a trainer presents and assists in the training
- Have a trainer observe you present the exam and train others
- Have you train someone in the administration and scoring of the NNNS exam
- Send more videos of you training others & your trainee (s) administering the NNNS exam

COST:
$1800/per trainee (+ travel expenses for trainer & trainee)