A "Significant Financial Interest" (SFI) is defined as the receipt by you, your spouse, or your dependent children of any of the following:

- Income that exceeds $5,000 from any outside entity, measured on a rolling 12-month basis. This may be one payment from a particular company of more than $5000, or multiple payments from the same company that in the aggregate exceed $5000 and are received within the previous 12 months.
- Acquisition of equity in a public company that exceeds $5000 in value;
- Aggregated income and equity/ownership interest from a public company that exceeds $5,000, as measured on a rolling 12-month basis;
- ANY equity/ownership interest in a privately-held company;
- An income that exceeds $5,000 from rights in intellectual property, as measured on a rolling 12 month basis;
- All reimbursed and "sponsored" travel that exceeds $5,000, as measured on a rolling 12-month basis.

Excluded from this definition are payments (including travel) received from Brown. Also excluded from this definition are payments received from any of the following entities, provided these payments are received for teaching engagements, lectures, seminars, or services on advisory committees or review panels:

- Government agencies
- US institutions of higher education and research institutes affiliated with them
- Academic teaching hospitals
- Medical centers

Further, you do not have to report:

- Salary, royalties, travel, or other remuneration through your employer
- Income from investment vehicles over which you do not exercise control, such as mutual funds and retirement accounts

Do you, including your spouse and dependent children, have any Significant Financial Interests (SFIs) related to your responsibilities or research conducted at Brown?

Yes, I have Significant Financial Interests to report. (please provide information about your SFIs including reimbursed and sponsored travel on the next page)

No, I have no Significant Financial Interests, including travel, to report.
