Subrecipient FCOI Certification Decision Chart

Are you submitting a proposal to NIH (or another sponsor following PHS FCOI Guidance)?
- Yes
  - Is the Subaward Institution listed on the FDP FCOI Clearinghouse?
    - Yes: No Subrecipient FCOI Certification is Needed
    - No: Subrecipient FCOI Certification will be required with proposal

- No: No Subrecipient FCOI Certification is Needed

Does the Subrecipient FCOI Certification include a checkbox in Section A. or Section B.?
- Section A.
  - No additional information or documents are needed at this time.
- Section B.
  - A completed Non-Brown Investigator FCOI Disclosure Form will be required for individuals listed in Part II of the Subrecipient Certification

Links to Forms and Resources
1. List of Agencies Using PHS FCOI Regulations
2. Federal Demonstration Partnership Institutional Clearinghouse
3. FCOI Sub-recipient Certification Form
4. FCOI Assurance Form For Non-Brown University Investigators

*Note that a Non-Brown Investigator FCOI Disclosure Form is required for any FCOI Additional Investigator who is not covered by a subaward. Additionally, a Non-Brown Investigator FCOI Disclosure Form is always required when a Consultant is listed as an FCOI Additional Investigator.